

Fine Jewellery Group entities are certified by the Responsible Jewellery Council (RJC), a standards setting and certification organization. As a certified RJC member we are committed to and are independently audited towards the RJC Code of Practices – an international standard on responsible business practices for diamonds, gold and platinum group metals. The code of practices addresses human rights, labor rights, environmental impact, product disclosure and many more important topics in the jewellery supply chain.

Fine Jewellery Group entities have adopted RJC policies and procedures that documents its commitment to responsible business practices of RJC COP's including policies on sourcing and human rights. All policies and corresponding due diligence are available on request. Any grievances related to sourcing policies of Fine Jewellery Group Entities are received and resolved by top management. Fine Jewellery has adopted the RJC policies and procedures that documents its commitment to responsible business practices of RJC COP's. The commitment to RJC includes policies on sourcing and human rights. All RJC policies and corresponding due diligences are available on request. E-mail request for the policy document/due diligences and any grievances related to sourcing policies can be sent to compliance@fine-jewellery.com

Sohil Kothari
Director

